Ed. F. M. Tindler is preaching at Sycamore school house each evening this week, but will fill his pulpit at the Christian church Sunday morning.

Those wishing to take advantage of Wyatt's annual summer tour, should see Mrs. J. Joseph at once, as very little time is left in which to make arrangements.

Sale of City Property.

Hughes & Swinebroad report that they have just sold for Mrs. Uddie Robinson her property on Richmond street, to Mrs. Alice Walker, for $4000.

Dove Season.

As the game law in regard to doves, was lifted August 1st, the dove hunters may again try their skill. There will be little sport, however, until the hemp is cut, which will be a few weeks off.

What It Takes.

"It takes a rich man to draw a check, a pretty girl to draw attention, a horse to draw a cart, a porcupine to draw the skin, a toper to draw a cork, a free lunch to draw a crowd, and an advertisement in the home paper to draw trade. Send in your ad for the drawing."

School Trustee Election.

On last Saturday, August 7th, there was a school trustee election held in the county, but we are not able to give all the names of those elected, however we hear that A. J. Hammack was elected in Union district, to succeed R. F. Parsons, and A. K. Walker was elected to West Point.

Rents in Lincoln.

Mr. W. P. Kincaid, of Garrard, has rented the Mark Hardin warehouse for this season and will buy and store tobacco in it. He also has a large house at Paint Lick and will be in the market at all times. In due time Mr. Kincaid will open a warehouse either at Kings Mountain or McKinney, where he will buy all grades of tobacco—Interior Journal.

Lancaster Colored Fair.

As we go to press, we are told by the management of the Colored Fair that financial success is assured by the large number of visitors who have come to the fair.

Secretary James Williams and President, Geo. Moran, together with the directors, have worked hard to make this the best fair the colored people have had and we believe they will succeed.

They took advantage of the famous Hamiltons Military Band, of Lexington, by giving a concert in Euclid Park Wednesday night. The music was fine and entertained the crowd perfectly.

MORE CONCERNING SEATTLE.

Or The New York of The West.

Dear Record:

A few more facts may be interesting. The trite saying—"You cannot teach an old dog new tricks," does not hold good in my case. I have learned much since my arrival here, and I am bewildered when I consider the fact that I will not be enabled to grasp a small part of the wonderful changes that are taking place in this city and the surrounding country, where the possibilities, the push, industry and enterprise exceed all estimation.

Although I passed through Boston, New Haven, Chicago and many cities en route to this place, I have seen more strangers here than at any place, having met at least one hundred with whom I have no acquaintance whatever, and, as represented here, an introduction would avail nothing. The papers here are larger than those in most Eastern cities, and have a table of contents on the first page so that any article can be readily found. Of course I enjoy them, but the time of the arrival of the Record, the Interior Journal, the Clinch and other Kentucky papers is hailed with delight.

Lumbering and fruit growing are among the chief industries. Blue grass, timothy, clover and alfalfa are grown. Fruit orchards sell for $1,000 per acre. I am told that pumpkins do not thrive here because the vines grow so rapidly that they drag the little pumpkins about so quickly that they are destroyed. There is a greater variety of crops grown in Kentucky, but those grown here yield abundantly.

Banks reflect the growth, commerce and wealth of a country. There are 26 banks here with capital from $500,000 to over a million dollars, and one hundred thousand to $300,000 surplus. This city recently gained 48 per cent in bank clearings, and 29 per cent in building, big buildings being planned and contractors being forced to refuse some contracts. In order to form some conception of the people here I note that 30,000 attend the exposition daily, and the street cars carry 400,000 people each day. The fair is a great success and several millions of dollars will be left here. The exhibits of Japan, Hawaii and other countries are highly instructive and I intend to bring Mrs. F. P. Frisbie some souvenirs. A visit to the government building is worth a year of reading and study. There we learned that we are destroying 20 billions of feet of lumber annually and raising only 7 billions of feet, and that it requires one thousand years for nature to restore one foot of lost soil. Hence the necessity of caring for soil.

A trip across and around Puget Sound, a finger of the mighty Pacific, was full of interest for me. Hills are washed down to fill up the tide flats to make room for railroad shops, tracks and large manufacturing plants. We are eating plenty of fish, and the boys at home would be delighted to join Percy and me in catching large, fine trout on Lake Crescent. In a nutshell, the beautiful parks, the superb homes, the business houses, the schools and other institutions that tend to uplift and elevate mankind, all conspire to verify the expression, "Westward the Star of Empire Takes Its Stand."

Truly,

M. D. H.

Definition of a Knocker.

A knocker is a moss backed, swivel-headed, penurious, selfish, suspicious, whining, hesitating, near-sighted fellow. His eyes have a fondness for scarecrows and skeletons; his ears seem to itch for groans, groans and shrieks of distress. His voice seems a strange combination of the squeal of a pig, the bray of a donkey and the growl of an old coffee mill. Perfume to him is nauseating, but his nose laughs at a touch of carrion. He delights to talk the inequalities of life, the oppression of government, business failures and is a great prophet of evil. To him the future is a dungeon of horrors. He says conditions have grown worse for a long time, and will do so more rapidly in the future. He has all the horrors of memories without the pleasures of hope. He is miserable when he is happy and happy when he is miserable.

The suggestion of any improvement gives him a nightmare. Stagnation is his ideal condition. He does not believe in any outlay for the building of schools, churches, roads, bridges, waterworks, sewers, sidewalks, pavements, or any other public improvement because our fathers did not have all of them, and he does not believe in leaving these things for his children, but wants them to take care of them selves as he has done. He dwells among the tombs, holds close communion with the mummies, seems sorry that he is alive and is glad that he is going to die.

A knocker is more than a wart on the public nose. He is a cancerous growth upon the face of social beauty. He is the tuberculosis of life. He is a crick in the neck, a catch in the back; the string halted balky horse in the team, a brake upon the wagon bound uphill, the leak in the steam chest of the engine, the discordant note in music. Men with heartful spirit for public improvement shun him as they would a leper, tread on him as a serpent and despise him as a howling coyote.—Jessamine News.

Prohibition Chautauque.

Although the Chautauque was a few days late, there was great interest manifested throughout the meeting. The afternoon services which were held in Court House were fairly well attended, and the night services held in the park drew unusually large crowds.

The special music was a most pleasing feature, being rendered by male quartets and violin solos. Hon. Frank S. Regan, the celebrated cartoonist, convinced his hearers of the fact that he was really the greatest "Tax expert of the country," showing where the revenue comes from. This was fully illustrated with his famous cartoons.

Mr. Gardner, the cornet soloist, of national fame on account of having played with Sousa's famous band, rendered a number of very choice selections and also spoke convincingly on the "Consolidation of Property."

Class J Hall, "The California Wizard" delivered a number of telling addresses, notably his sermon on the "Ministry of Love" Sunday morning at the Christian church. He also spoke at other times with telling effect on such themes as "Who takes the Consequences," and "Signs of Promise."

Among the most unique characters was Captain Stanley, who composed and sang songs, peculiar to his own style of both thought and music, which were heartily enjoyed by all that heard him. He was a converted comedian and spoke largely of his experience during the many years of intemperate living. His happy style and sincere method made him very popular with his audience. The two most popular songs were "Serving the Lord in My Own Weak Way," and "Kentucky is Going Dry."

Last of all and the most eloquent man was "Jo" Jamison, who closed the Chautauque, with four most remarkable addresses, which convinced many people that George W. Bain was right when he said "I have heard Breckenridge, Marshall, and all the other great orators of the past half century, but Jamison beats them all." He is a worthy son of Ireland that has become by adoption a famous son of America. It was pleasing to many of his auditors to hear his tributes to the Southland and her noble people.

As a whole, the programme was good and awakened much interest in the cause of temperance. The purpose of such work is to inaugurate a campaign for State-Wide Prohibition. Much credit is due the local W. C. T. U. for their loyalty and persistence in bringing such talent into the community.

All of the churches in the city joined in the support of the chautauque, which helped make it a great success.

Proclamation by the Governor.

Gov. Wilson prepared a proclamation to the people of Kentucky calling upon them to assist the sheep owners and proper authorities in stamping out the disease of "scabies" in the State and to prevent the quarantine against Kentucky's sheep. It is as follows:

The Government inspectors report scabies in many sheep in Kentucky, and a calamity of a Federal quarantine on Kentucky sheep is sure to be imposed unless our people take action to stamp out the disease. The remedy is so simple that the prevalence of the disease is wholly due to neglect, and I will call upon every sheep owner in the State, for his own sake and for the sake of the sheep industry in Kentucky, to at once take measures to stamp out this disease, the remedy for which is simple and well known, and the cost of which is only a fraction of the inevitable loss if we fail to take the proper action. I have interceded with the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States to suspend taking measures to quarantine the sheep of Kentucky until we can have a reasonable chance to stamp out the disease ourselves.

In order to advise all of the County Judges and County Attorneys of the necessity of thorough and prompt action, I invite every County Judge and County Attorney in Kentucky to meet with the Kentucky Sheep Breeders Association at the Kentucky State Fair, at Louisville, on Wednesday, September 15, 1909, and all sheep breeders and sheep owners and their representatives are earnestly invited to attend at the same time in order that all may counsel together, and that such action shall be taken that we shall wipe out the disease, and avoid the great injury and loss which will happen to the State if we fail to act promptly. The loss which would be suffered by failure to act would amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars, as I am informed by the best posted men in the State, and it can be saved by good work and quick work at a very slight expense. Let us all cooperate to do our duty.

AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON,
Governor of Kentucky.

A Method Of Eradicating The Wild Onion.

The office of Farm Management, United States Department of Agriculture, has now ready for distribution a circular giving a detailed discussion of the wild onion problem and outlining a plan whereby the pest can be exterminated. This circular will be sent free to any person requesting it.

Land Sales.

A big land trade was made between W. S. Hensley and W. T. King, when they "swapped" farms. Mr. Hensley gave Mr. King $40, per acre for his farm of 340 acres, near Buena Vista, at the same time, selling his farm of 121 acres, near Lowell, to Mr. King at $120, per acre.

Mrs. Edna Francis sold her farm of 100 acres on Buckeye pike, to Mr. T. L. Yantis, for $70, per acre.

Miss Mason, Hostess.

Miss Edna Mason was hostess at a delightful dinner party Tuesday. The table was beautifully decorated with pink begonias, and a pink dahlia was with each place card. Pink candles and pink ices and mints carried out the color scheme. Covers were laid for the following:

Misses Ozia Young, Lettie Mae McRoberts, Sophronia Fox and Messrs W. Fox Logan, J. S. Haselden, Louis Gill, Clay Kaufman, Horace Walker and Bascom Ford.

Eleanor Swinebroad.

After an illness of several weeks, Eleanor, the eighteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Swinebroad, died Friday evening.

The funeral services were conducted at the residence on Richmond street, by Dr. E. H. Pearce, Saturday morning, and the interment followed in Lancaster cemetery.

Though her soul is at peace with God, and her suffering ended, yet it seems harder for parents to give up one of such tender age, than an older one. The entire community expresses sympathy to the bereaved parents.

To Correspondents.

The splendid letters from Marksbury, Union, and Buena Vista were omitted from this issue because they did not reach our office till Wednesday morning. Correspondents will please mail them, hereafter, on Monday, that they may reach us Monday evening.

"Good. What has he chosen?"

"He wants to be a lineman for a wireless telegraph company."—Cleveland Leader.

"Did you ever go up in a balloon?" asked Mayme.

"Yes, accidentally," replied Spryng. "I happened to be in the basket when the ropes were cut, and I didn't have time to jump out."

"I suppose you were angry?"

"Yes it did make me soar."

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Republican party of Garrard county: I am the Republican nominee for County Attorney and will appreciate your support. B. D. Herndon.

It took seven columns with more yet to come for Editor Hill to apologize for an empty state treasury and that state warrants are being held up because of it. But the fact remains that the Democratic administration met all bills, built a million dollar capitol, turned the reins of government over to the "hungry hordes" with over a million in the treasury, and all this at a lower tax rate than is the style at present with the Republicans trying to steer the ship of state. Old Abe certainly said something when he made that little remark about fooling the people—sometimes the Republicans won't be able to do it twice in succession.—Harrodsburg Herald.

If it were not for the redeeming feature of the Blue Grass fair at Lexington this week, the city would certainly look to outsiders that it was an unlucky time for them, as Judge Parker declared the election of city officials void, some persons who owned handsome vacant lots would not have the weeds out, the street car company has been indicted, and there is a water company war, and weather is scorching hot. We hope that the visitors to the fair this week will change their luck.

We received a letter from Hon. Harvey Helm, asking that his Record be sent to Stanford now, instead of Wash.ington. The Interior Journal says: "Hon. Harvey Helm, our Congressman, arrived at home from Washington Friday looking disheartened after the busy session. By the way he fared well in the assignments, having been placed on Public Buildings and Insular Affairs, two important committees."

The tobacco warehouse men are doing good business for themselves by securing promises from many growers of the state to disregard the proposed pools and send their tobacco to Louisville for sale, while the Hurley Tobacco Society and the Society of Equity are scrapping between themselves over the form of organization and pledge for a pool for the burley tobacco crop 1909.

We are very thankful to Secretary E. A. Chilton for a complimentary ticket to the Laurel County Fair, to be held at London, Kentucky, August 24th to 27th, inclusive. He said he hoped we could use it every day, and we do too, for the London fair has the reputation of being one of the best in the state. Many from here will attend.

The farmers of the country must be very much interested in the "scrapping" over the proposed pooling pledge, between the Society of Equity and the Hurley Tobacco Society. As they are the ones who will win or lose by the way this fight ends, they should consider it well before expressing either way.

In accepting the invitation to speak at the Jeffersonian Barbecue, August 31st and September 1st, former United States Senator James H. McCreary says that he is always ready to do anything that will promote victory for the Democratic party.

No effort to stop the Japanese from working has developed at any point on the Antung-Mukden railroad, and it is reported that China has formally withdrawn all objection to the work proceeding.

While Spain shows calm in the interior, the situation in Morocco is still serious. Spain is assembling reinforcements to carry out the purposes of her campaign in Africa, while the Moors are gathering to resist the Spanish advance, and this week is likely to see encounters of more or less gravity.

War between Turkey and Greece over the island of Crete is not considered a possibility in European capitals. The four protecting powers are insisting that the matter be settled amicably. Turkey insists that she has not delivered an ultimatum, and that her representations have been made verbally and in the friendliest tone possible.

President Taft has decided that in appointing census supervisors, Republicans only will be named in the Northern and Western States. In the Southern States, with the exception of Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri and North Carolina, half of the supervisors will be Democrats. Considering the four Southern States named as debatable ground the President will name members of his own party in the hope of strengthening it.

At a conference between representatives of the Society of Equity and the Burley Society at Winchester, propositions were made by the Burley Society which will end the controversy between the two organizations. The Burley Society agrees to pay the Equity Society a hoghead commission on tobacco pooled through local unions of the Equity Society; will pay over to each county money received for tobacco ten days after receipt, and will pay to the Equity Society $10,000 out of the pool of 1909, half of which is to go to the State society.

BLUE GRASS FARM FOR SALE.

As executor of the will of Mrs. Emma G. Gregory, deceased, I will on at 10 o'clock, a.m., on the premises, offer for sale to the highest and best bidder the splendid Blue Grass Farm situated on the east side of the Fall Line and Lancaster Turnpike, 15 miles from Point Lewis and 4 miles from Lancaster, Kentucky. One to school and church and only 1/4 mile to rail station. This farm contains 150 acres, the entire front faces on a good road and is perfectly level, the remainder is well. It has a good 9 room brick and frame residence, a good barn, besides stables and outhouses, a good house and other necessary outbuildings. It is beautifully supplied with water from 3 never failing springs and good pond. This year it is in cultivation as follows:—40 acres in wheat (about 50 acres of this is sown in clover), 54 acres in corn, 3 acres in tobacco, 31 acres in clover meadow, 5 acres in bearing orchard and the remainder in bluegrass.

This farm is situated in the heart of Garrard County's famous farming district and well and suitably located for any kind of farming desired. Taking all these facts in consideration, this is one of the most desirable farms to be found. This place will be offered for sale in two ways:—First, the whole lying on the south side of the county road including the dwelling and containing about 150 acres, will be offered first; then the tract on the opposite side of the said road containing about 10 acres will be offered second, the line dividing these tracts to be the center of the said county road, and the exact acreage in each tract to be ascertained by survey. Then the entire farm of 150+ acres will be offered and the bid or bids bringing the most money will be accepted. Any one desiring to see the farm or wishing any other information will please call on or write the undersigned.

TERMS: Three notes with approved security to be given on the day of sale, each for one amount of one-third of the purchase price, due and payable January 1st, 1910, January 1st, 1911 and January 1st, 1912, respectively. A lien to be retained on the land to secure the payments of these notes and interest. Said notes to be made on the payment of said note due at that time and possession given, except pending privileges given by said. Sale begins promptly at 10 o'clock. W. F. CHAMP, Executor. T. D. English, Asst. Point Lick, Ky.

WHAT THE GREAT OPERATIC ARTISTS ARE DOING.

Great artists like Meiba, Calve, Eames and others, devote as much care to the preservation of their physical beauty as to the development of their voices. Hair and complexion demand the greatest care. A smooth, velvety and rosate complexion in connection with a luxuriant head of hair will transform the most commonplace looking female into an attractive and fascinating woman.

Women in professional life thoroughly understand this fact. How often we hear the expression, "What a beautiful head of hair," or "What a lovely complexion," etc. Take a woman, for instance, of fifty years, whose hair has become streaked with gray. If she thoroughly realized that Q-Hair Hair Restorer would restore her hair to its youthful beauty and abundance, what would she not pay to become possessed of it, and if she knew that applications of the Restorer to the face would remove all pimples, blotches, etc., and improve the complexion a hundred fold, beside making her appear fifteen years younger, would she use it? Dr. Nott says that he never in his entire practice, failed in one single instance to restore gray hair to color, depending solely upon Q-Hair Hair Restorer, and that for diseased conditions of the scalp, falling hair, dandruff, etc., or to increase the growth of the hair, the Q-Hair Hair Tonic was always to be relied upon. All druggists have it for sale. Try it. If you use six bottles and the results are not as claimed, your druggist will refund you your money.

R. E. McRoberts recommends and sells these preparations.

If you are gray haired or your hair commences to fall, you can have the first bottle free, simply call and ask for it.

For sale at all Druggists.
